A regular visitor to the yard, the Pearl (previously known as the Ocean Pearl) underwent extensive internal and external upgrading and refurbishment over a five-week period.

Conversion specifications on the vessel required cosmetic stretching and modification of the profile plus major refurbishment of facilities to allow for an increase of the passenger/ crew complement.

Internal modifications were made for extra accommodation, as well as the Sky Deck, the Upper Deck, the Promenade Deck, the Belvedere Deck, which had a completely new arrangement, the Main Deck, shop areas, the Pacific, Bali and China Decks including a new hospital complete with crew cabins, a new print room, electrical workshop, offices and a hotel store.
